

EDUCATION

- 2023 PhD, Faculty of Information, University of Toronto
Archaeological data work as continuous and collaborative practice
- 2014 MA, Department of Anthropology, McMaster University
Obsidian Circulation Networks in Southwest Asia and Anatolia: A Comparative Approach
- 2012 BA, Directed Interdisciplinary Studies, Carleton University
- 2009 DEC, Social Sciences, Dawson College

GRANTS & FELLOWSHIPS

- 2019 – 2021 SSHRC Doctoral Fellowship. Archaeological data curation as continuous and collaborative practice. Award ID: 752-2019-2233.

RESEARCH POSITIONS

- 2018 – 2023 Research Assistant
E-CURATORS: Pervasive Digital Curation Activities, Objects and Infrastructures in Archaeological Research and Communication
Faculty of Information, University of Toronto
- 2016 – 2021 Database Manager
Stelida Naxos Archaeology Project
- 2009 Research Assistant
Redpath Museum, McGill University
- 2007 – 2009 Research Assistant
Molecular Pharmacology Laboratory
Lady Davis Institute for Medical Research

Articles in Progress

* Titles are subject to change.

- In progress Batist, Z. Scaffolding archaeological projects through data management protocols.
Articulates the social and technical apparatus that govern how specialist work and information are distributed throughout an archaeological project.
- In progress Batist, Z. Translating fuzzy knowledge to concrete data.
Accounts for the pressures to render fuzzy interpretive knowledge into decisive records.
- In progress Batist, Z. Distribution and internalization of roles in distributed and multi-stakeholder projects.
Articulates a theory of role-relations in cooperative work environments that I developed throughout my PhD.
- In progress Batist, Z. Open data, overstated: an exploration of small-scale, offline and private acts of data-sharing within archaeological projects.
Framing archaeological knowledge production in terms participating as a member of a commons, and accounting for the roles, relationships and boundaries that commoning entails.

- In progress Roe, J & Batist, Z. Archaeology in the fediverse: reclaiming ownership of scholarly social media
Position paper articulating the discussion held during our panel at ArcheoFOSS XVII.

- 2017 Batist, Z & Dallas, C. A view from the bridge: human- and thing-centred approaches to research practice, disciplinary discourse and local engagement with the archaeological record. Paper presented at TAG (North America) 2017 - The Medium is the Message: Media and Mediation in Archaeology. Toronto, Ontario, May 2017.
- 2017 Carter, T, Campeau, K, Batist, Z, Garfinkel, Y, Rosenberg, D, Rowan, Y & Streit, K. Social Interaction at Distance Over the Long Term: Obsidian Sourcing from the Southern Levant (9th – 4th millennia cal BC). Paper presented at the Society for American Archaeology 82nd Annual Meeting. Vancouver, British Columbia, March – April 2017.
- 2017 Batist, Z. Identifying Obsidian Procurement Habits during the Pre-Pottery Neolithic in the Levant using Network Analysis. Poster presented at the Archaeological Institute of America 118th Annual Meeting. Toronto, Ontario, January 2017.
- 2015 Batist, Z. The Database of Obsidian Sourcing Studies (DObsiSS): Using Git for Collaborative Management of Archaeological Data. Poster presented at the American Archaeological Institute 116th Annual Meeting. New Orleans, Louisiana, January 2015.
- 2014 Batist, Z. An Examination of Obsidian Circulation Patterns in Terms of Relational and Geographical Distance in Southwest Asia and Anatolia from the Epi-Palaeolithic to Chalcolithic Periods (14000 – 5700 B.P.). Paper presented at Archaeological Sciences and the Ancient Mediterranean Environment. The Archaeological Centre, University of Toronto, March 2014.

- 2014 Batist, Z. Using Network Analysis to Examine Relative Resource Procurement Strategies in Anatolia and Southwest Asia from the Epipaleolithic to Chalcolithic Periods (14,000 – 5700 BP). Paper presented at the American Archaeological Institute 115th Annual Meeting. Chicago, Illinois, January 2014.
- 2013 Freund, KP & Batist, Z. Tracking the Circulation of Sardinian Obsidian using Network Analysis: Lithic Procurement, Cultural Interaction, and Early Maritime Navigation in the Neolithic. Paper presented at Networks of maritime connectivity in the ancient Mediterranean: Structure, continuity, and change over the longue durée. The Archaeology Centre, University of Toronto. Toronto, Ontario, November 2013.
- 2013 Batist, Z. Using network analysis to examine obsidian assemblage variability in Anatolia and Southwest Asia from the Epi-Palaeolithic to Chalcolithic periods (14000 – 5700 BP). Paper presented at The Future of Historical Network Research Conference. Historical Network Research, University of Hamburg. Hamburg, Germany, September 2013.
- 2012 Batist, Z. Eat, Drink and Be Networked: Feasting and Bronze Age Networks. Invited panelist at the Colloquium on Digital History and the Transnational History of Nursing. Department of History, Carleton University. Ottawa, Ontario, March 2012.

AWARDS & HONORS

- 2019 Research Travel Grant ($500)
Faculty of Arts and Science, University of Toronto
